

Wednesday 21 October 7.00pm	 Films on Foot Walk: Soho & The West End
Leader: Eleanor (07985 771573) Meeting point: Exit 1, Tottenham Court Station (Oxford Street south exit). Finish point: Embankment tube station	Terrain: Urban, parkland. Length (miles): 3 Pace: Leisurely Drop out: various Note: This walk has been timed to coincide with the BFI London Film Festival. We'll start in Soho, the heart of the British film industry and then walk through the West End where arguably London's most famous landmarks are, frequently seen on the big screen. The walk will end at a pub near Embankment tube station.
Saturday 24 October 1.30pm	 Films on Foot Walk: Notting Hill & Kensington Gardens
Leader: Eleanor (07985 771573) Meeting point: Royal Oak tube station Finish point: Bayswater/Queensway tube station	Terrain: Parks, urban Length (miles): 8 Pace: Leisurely Drop out: various Note: This walk has been timed to coincide with the BFI London Film Festival. This is a walk of contrasts taking in the elegant streets of 'Notting Hill' so popular with British romantic comedy film makers, as well as the green space of Kensington Gardens and the seedy streets around Bayswater used in films such as 'Trainspotting'. Pub stop en route at a pub used in a film. We'll end at the Prince Alfred Pub near Queensway/ Bayswater for food / drinks (sitting upstairs).
Sunday 25 October 1.30pm	 Films on Foot Walk: Canary Wharf & Maritime Greenwich
Leader: Margaret (07980 376 756) Meeting point: Ticket office at Canary Wharf tube station. Please note change of meeting point. Finish point: Greenwich DLR/ train station	Terrain: Urban, parkland Length (miles): 5 Pace: Leisurely Drop out: various Note: This walk has been timed to coincide with the BFI London Film Festival. The Isle of Dogs has been the scene for many gangster and action films and was the scene for an exciting James Bond chase scene. Maritime Greenwich is one of the most popular film locations in London featured recently in 'The Golden Compass' and Keira Knightley's 'Duchess'. The walk will end at a pub in Greenwich.
Wednesday 28 October 7.00pm	 Films on Foot Walk: The East End
Leader: Sally (07952 204 183) Meeting point: Liverpool Street station (foot of the escalators at Old Broad Street exit) Finish point: Bethnal Green tube station	Terrain: Urban Length (miles): 3 Pace: Leisurely Drop out: various Note: This walk has been timed to coincide with the BFI London Film Festival. This part of London was the play ground for real time villains, the Krays, and is a favourite film location for British gangster movies such as Guy Ritchie's 'Lock Stock and Two Smoking Barrels'. We'll visit the film locations around Spitalfields and Bethnal Green ending at a pub near Bethnal Green tube station.